MEDIA RELEASE

5 December 2017

Dynamic parish coach confirmed as keynote speaker at PROCLAIM 2018

One of the Catholic Church's most celebrated parish transformers will be a keynote speaker at PROCLAIM 2018 – the national conference that inspires, equips and encourages Catholic communities.

Ron Huntley, a key coach for parishes that are part of the Divine Renovation network, will travel from Canada to address PROCLAIM 2018 in Brisbane from 12-14 July 2018.

Early Bird registration is now open with parishes and individuals able to access discounted prices. To register please visit www.proclaimconference.com.au.

Ron Huntley will join a strong list of keynote speakers including Cardinal John Dew (Archdiocese of Wellington, New Zealand), Ms Lana Turvey-Collins (Plenary Council 2020 Facilitator) and host of PROCLAIM 2018 Archbishop Mark Coleridge (Archdiocese of Brisbane).

This will be the first time that the Archdiocese of Brisbane will host the national Proclaim conference. The theme of the conference, to be held at St Laurence's College, South Brisbane, will be "Make your home in me" (Jn 15:4).

This important initiative of the Bishops Commission for Evangelisation is expected to engage parishes in an ongoing conversation focusing on leadership, culture change, young people, belonging and evangelisation. This conversation will draw together more than 500 participants for keynote presentations, facilitated conversation sessions, peer learning, expert discussion panels and future visionary planning.

Throughout the conference, delegates will be offered the opportunity to develop their own Proclaim Action Plan which they are invited to implement on returning to their local parishes and communities around Australia.

2018 will be a significant year, not only has Pope Francis named it as the 'Year of Youth', but also because it is a key time in the lead up to the Plenary Council 2020.

"We welcome dioceses, parishes and communities from across Australia and from overseas to experience the warmth and hospitality of Brisbane during Proclaim 2018. This important national conference is well placed in the lead up to Plenary Council 2020 to explore the key
