

25 February 2019

Media Release

Cardinal George Pell has always maintained his innocence and continues to do so.

An appeal has been lodged against his conviction and he will await the outcome of the appeal process.

Although originally the Cardinal faced allegations from a number of complainants, all charges except for those the subject of the appeal have now been either withdrawn, discharged or discontinued.

He will not be commenting in the meantime.

Paul Galbally

Galbally & O'Bryan Lawyers