FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAMPION COLLEGE TO HOST INTELLECTUAL RETREAT, FEATURING KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY DR STEPHEN CHAVURA

Campion College is excited to announce its upcoming Intellectual Retreat, scheduled to take place from April 12th to April 14th, 2024. The retreat, designed for adults from across Australia and New Zealand, offers a unique opportunity for intellectual enrichment and exploration of the liberal arts, focusing on theology and literature.

Attendees will have the opportunity to delve into the core principles of the liberal arts through a variety of engaging sessions, including guided readings of timeless literary works, thought-provoking panel discussions led by Campion College academics, and intimate small-group workshops. Additionally, participants will have the chance to attend the highly anticipated keynote address, which will be delivered by Dr Stephen Chavura, Senior Lecturer in History at Campion College. The title of Dr Chavura's keynote address will be announced soon.

"We are thrilled to host our Intellectual Retreat," said Dr. Paul Morrissey, President of Campion College. "This event represents a unique opportunity for individuals to engage with scholarly materials, connect with like-minded individuals, and expand their intellectual horizons in a supportive and immersive environment."

For those unable to attend the entire weekend, Campion College offers flexible ticketing options, including a Saturday-only package which includes access to Saturday sessions and the Saturday night keynote dinner, as well as standalone tickets for the keynote dinner.

The retreat will take place at Campion College, located at 8-14 Austin Woodbury Place, Toongabbie NSW 2146.

Registration for the Campion College Intellectual Retreat is now open, and interested individuals are encouraged to secure their spot as soon as possible. For more information and to register, please visit www.campion.edu.au/event/intellectual-retreat/
