ACRATH Shines a Light on Human Trafficking in Podcast Interview

Sr Noelene Simmons sm, ACRATH's Communications and Advocacy Specialist, recently shared her insights on the latest episode of the RE Search podcast, titled "A Catholic Response to Human Trafficking."

Produced by the Archdiocese of Sydney in collaboration with Sydney Catholic Schools, the RE Search podcast explores pressing questions from school communities and parishes. This episode delves into human trafficking in today's society and discusses actionable steps that educational institutions and church communities can take to combat it.

Sr Noelene emphasizes the importance of awareness, stating, "Red flags within the supply chain... we can learn to recognize them in our everyday life."

The episode is available for streaming on multiple platforms:
